

A person is seen from behind, holding an open umbrella. They are standing in a field of tall grass. The entire scene is filled with a dense, vibrant orange and yellow light trails, resembling a long-exposure photograph of a firework or a light painting. The light trails form a large, glowing circular shape around the person and the umbrella. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a wall or a large screen, with the light trails creating a sense of movement and transformation.
