

Contents

Acknowledgments xv
Authors' Statement xvi
Introduction xvii

Chapter 1

Beliefs 1
 Expose: Actively Examining Beliefs 2
 A Draw a Chair Activity 2
 Chair Categories 3
 Identifying Shared Strategies and Feelings 5
 Making Connections 5
 Insights Revealed Through the Activity 5
 Explode: Understanding Visual Mind-sets 6
 A Categorization Activity 6
 Making Modes of Thought Visible 7
 Symbols for Ways of Thinking 8
 Awareness of Mind-sets 9
 Empower: Creating a Personal Symbol 11
 Reflect: Underlying Ideas 11
 Catalyst: Ideas into Action in Your Classroom 13
 Making Activities Age Appropriate 13
 Teaching for Student Engagement 15
 Principles for Curriculum Development 16

Chapter 2

Definitions	19
Expose: Sorting Biases	20
What Is Art?	20
When Is Something Art?	20
Instrumentalism: Art with Purpose	20
Imitationalism: Art and Reality	22
Expressionism: Art and Emotion	23
Formalism: Art by Design	24
Contextualism: It Depends	25
Bringing Assumptions to Light	26
Explode: Confronting Biases and “Best”	27
Empower: Extending Definitions	28
Transforming an Object	28
Considering “Precious Objects”	28
Reflect: Diverse Cultural Perspectives	29
Catalyst: Art Ideas into Action	30
Making Activities Age Appropriate	31
Teaching for Student Engagement	32
Principles for Curriculum Development	33

Chapter 3

Processes	35
Expose: An Intervisual Process	36
The Intervisual Process and a Work of Public Art	38

Explode: Diverse Critical Approaches	40
Embracing Pluralism	41
Empower: Preferences, Persuasion, and Public Art	44
Reflect: Mind-sets and Interpretive Processes	44
Discussing Controversial Artworks	45
Catalyst: Teaching Controversial Visual Culture	46
Making Activities Age Appropriate	46
Teaching for Student Engagement	47
Balanced Curriculum and the Intervisual Process	48

Chapter 4

Origins	51
Expose: A Childhood Art Experience	52
Debriefing Childhood Art Experiences	52
Explode: Theories of Children's Cognitive and Visual Development	52
Are Our Visual Thought Structures Ready-Made?	54
Piaget's Four Stages of Cognitive Development	55
Applying Cognitive Development Theory to Visual Thinking	58
Learning from the Draw Something Activity	59
Thinking about the Origins of Visual Thinking	60
Empower: Reshaping Experience	61
Reflect: Origins of Attitudes about Visual Culture	61
Catalyst: Evoking the Origins of Attitudes about Visual Culture	63
Making Activities Age Appropriate	63
Teaching for Student Engagement	64
Principles for Curriculum Development	65

Chapter 5

Codes	67
Expose: Visual Symbolic Codes	68
Past and Present Codes in Still Life Traditions	68
Worldviews in Italian and Dutch Paintings	69
Explode: Double Coding in Contemporary Art	71
Using Dialogue to Investigate Cultural Codes	73
Empower: Self-Codes	73
Cultural Artifact Orientation to Still Life Lesson	74
Using Interactive Labels	75
Reflect: Cultural Mirrors	76
Catalyst: Breaking the Codes	76
Making Activities Age Appropriate	77
Teaching for Student Engagement	78
Principles for Curriculum Development	79

Chapter 6

Power	81
Expose: Images Have Hidden Power	82
The Chilean Arpilleras in Context	84
The Power of Art	84
Explode: Power Ideology	85
Domination Power	86
Consensual Power	87
Transformative Power	88
Empower: Creating Transformative Power	88
Debriefing an Example	88

Reflect: Power of Images	91
Catalyst: Seeking Social Justice	91
Making Activities Age Appropriate	91
Teaching for Student Engagement	92
Principles for Curriculum Development	92

Chapter 7

Politics	95
Expose: Context and the Politics of Display	96
Juxtaposition: Stimulating Associative Thinking	96
Visual Manipulation Strategies	97
Explode: Considering Exhibition/Display Spaces	98
Empower: Virtual Chats and Role-Playing	99
Reflect: Power and Privilege in Contexts of Display	101
Catalyst: Actively Undermining Power and Privilege	101
Making Activities Age Appropriate	101
Teaching for Student Engagement	103
Principles for Curriculum Development	103

Chapter 8

Stories	105
Expose: Stories of Place	106
Places and Social Expectations	106
Stories of Shared Places	107
A Story of Place Activity	107
Explode: Just What Is a Story?	110
The Evolving Idea of Story	110
Changing Story Modes	111

Chapter 9

Story in Cyberspace: Linking Words and Images	111
Exploding Conceptions of Narrative	111
Interactive Stories of Self and Place	112
Empower: Creating Empowering Spaces	112
Overcoming Obstacles to Perception	112
Reflect: Broadening Notions of the Place Where Stories Reside	116
Catalyst: Broadening Visual Culture Narratives	116
Making Activities Age Appropriate	117
Teaching for Student Engagement	117
Principles for Curriculum Development	118
Synthesis	121
Expose: Making Meaning from Moving Pictures	122
Understanding One's Own Preferences	122
The Viewing a Film Activity	124
Explode: Layering Concepts in Pursuit of Deeper Context	126
Beliefs	126
Definitions	126
Processes	127
Origins	127
Codes	128
Power	128
Politics	128
Story	128
Empower: Creating a Video	128
The Filmmaking Process	129
Reflect: The Experience of Film	134

Catalyst: Making Moving Pictures	134
Making Activities Age Appropriate	135
Teaching for Student Engagement	136
Principles for Curriculum Development	136
Synthesizing Ideas into Action	137
Appendix A	140
Bibliography for a Social Theory Approach to Art and Other Forms of Visual Culture
Appendix B	141
Example Set of Student Chair Drawings
Appendix C	142
Step-by-Step Instructions for the Draw a Chair Activity
Appendix D	144
Student Handout for the Draw a Chair Activity
Appendix E	145
Drawing Conclusions Overhead
Appendix F	146
Sample Form Designed for Student Note-Taking in the Art and Not Art Activity
Appendix G	147
A Model for Discussing Films as Visual Culture
Films and Key Questions for Visual Culture Exploration
Index	157