Second Edition Acknowledgments

Thank you Jane, Claire, Gail, Karl, and the staff at Davis Publications—this book could not have been completed without your guidance, help, and ideas. Special thanks to the amazing students who participated in this undertaking, and their artist-teachers, who responded with enthusiasm to requests for claywork:

Susan Banks, New World School of the Arts, Miami, Florida; Keith Brockie, Arroyo Valley High School, San Bernardino, California; Sharon Carr, Benson High Magnet, Omaha, Nebraska; Tim Clark, The Rivers School, Weston, Massachusetts; Christine Colby, New Smyrna Beach High School, New Smyrna Beach, Florida; Suzanne Conine, Waterford School, Sandy, Utah; Albert Escalante, San Luis High School, Yuma, Arizona; Wells Gray, Mercersburg Academy, Mercersburg, Pennsylvania; Bill Kysor, Saint Marks School of Texas, Dallas, Texas; Frank Jacques, Oak Harbor High School, Oak Harbor, Washington; Diane Levinson, Bellarmine College Preparatory, San Jose, California; Carol Pelligra, Newtown High School, Sandy Hook, Connecticut; Lisa Rogers, Thornton High School, Louisville, Colorado; Steven Schiefelbein, Lake Oswego High School, Lake Oswego, Oregon; Ann Perry Smith, Lancaster High School, Lancaster, New York

To P.J. Anderson, Anna Delgado, Mark Gordon, Ricky Maldonado, Lorna Meaden, Anderson Turner and Isaiah Zagar, who shared insights and inspiration about their careers in clay, and to the many clay artists who provided illustrations, photographs and assistance: Your contributions added a richness and depth to this book that I am grateful for.

Immeasurable thanks go to my family. They were always there to offer kindness and encouragement when I really needed it: Kristina for her technical skills and endless patience, Eric for his Art History insights and ideas, Heather for sharing her experiences in publishing, and to my husband, Paul, for his challenging questions and support.
