

Contents

Acknowledgments	xvi
Authors' Statement	xvii
Introduction	xviii

Chapter 1

Understanding Gender: In Society, Schools, and the Artroom	1
Gender Expectations: How We Treat Boys and Girls	2
Gender vs. Sex: A Critical Distinction for Teachers	3
Gender Stereotypes and How We Teach	4
Assumptions and Misconceptions about Gender: In Society and Schools	5
Gender Differences: What Does the Research Really Say?	7
Differences in Social Behavior	8
Differences in Cognitive and Perceptual Skills and Other Behaviors	9
Studies on Gender and Art Education	10

Chapter 2

Gender Matters: Views of Gender and How They Affect Art Students	13
Gender Issues in the Art Classroom: How We Teach	14
Sexual Orientation and Gender	14
The Impact of Technology	16
Curriculum and Gender in the Art Classroom	17
Approaches to Gender Equity in the Artroom	19
The Separatist Approach	19
The Integrationist Approach	19

The Pluralist Approach	20
The Social Action Approach	20
Parallels Found in Approaches to Multiculturalism	20
Gender in the Artroom: Past and Present	21
Promoting Individual Achievement Along with Gender Equity	23

Chapter 3

Gender Issues in Art and Visual Culture	27
How Does Gender Affect Our Views of Art?	28
Art Deemed Worth Studying	28
How Do Women Appear in Art and in Visual Culture?	29
Women Artists? What Women Artists?	30
Common Gender Biases in Art Instruction	30
Advantages Held by Male Artists	33
Obstacles Faced by Female Artists	34
Biases Related to the Nature of Artistic Expression	36
Thinking about Art vs. Craft	37

Chapter 4

How Do Art and Visual Culture Shape Our Views of Gender?	43
Visual Culture and Art Education	44
Archetypes and Stereotypes in Art Instruction	44
The Male Perspective Taken as Universal	48
Art and Popular Imagery Reinforce Feminine Stereotypes	52
The Roles Images Play in Shaping Our Understanding of Gender and Sexual Identity	53

Chapter 5

Transforming Curriculum to Foster Gender Equity	57
Define Art Broadly	58
Analyze Books for Gender Equity	58
Fill in Gaps about Women and Art	59
Attend to Gender Connections to Art Year-Round	59
Include a Wide Range of Art Media	59
Highlight Artists' Roles in Diverse Societies	59
Critique the Canon of Art	59
Provide Indirect Approaches to Critique the Canon	59
Directly Critique the Canon of Art	61
Show Multiple Perspectives	61
Consider Sexual Orientation as an Aspect of Gender	61
Seek and Apply Information from Current Research	63
Consider the Audience	63
Relate Personal Identity and Artistic Expression	64
Explore How Gender Affects Artistic Expression	64
Highlight Gender Through the Lenses of Art Criticism and Art History	65
Introduce Ideas Found in Feminist Art Criticism	65
Inform Students about Influential Female Art Historians	66
Explore Issues of Context That Shape Content	66
Pose Challenging Questions	67
Study the Social Roles of Women Artists	67
Create Multiple Connections	67
Rethink Curriculum Approaches	67
Identify Appropriate Content	68
Design Substantive Content	68

Consider Gender Within the Context of Multiculturalism	71
Increase Our Understanding of Multiculturalism	72
Include Key Multicultural Concepts in Art Lesson Content	72
Study Stereotypes and Archetypes	72
Apply the Lens of Gender	73
Draw on Content from Students' Own Lives	73

Chapter 6

Supporting a Gender-Equitable Climate in the Art Classroom	77
Teaching Behaviors That Enhance Gender Equity	78
General Teacher Behaviors	79
Teacher Behaviors Specific to an Art Classroom	81
Encourage Student Behaviors That Positively Affect Gender Equity	82
General Student Behaviors	82
Student Behaviors Specific to Art Classrooms	83
Create a Nurturing Environment	83
A Classroom Climate That Promotes Equity	83
A Classroom Climate in Which Student Expectations, Attitudes, and Behaviors Promote Equity	84
A Safe Classroom Climate	84
Design Instructional Activities That Specifically Address Issues of Gender Equity	85
Reflective Exercises	85
Action Exercises	86
Individual Student Research	87
Collaborative Research Opportunities	87

Chapter 7

Windows into Practice: Four Case Studies	91
Unit 1 (Grades K–3): “Building Communities: From the Drawing Board to City Council Decisions”	93
Taking on the Challenge	95
What Might Students Learn about Gender?	95
Unit 2 (Grades 4–6): “Faces of the Past: Portraiture as Documentation of American History and Herstory ”	96
Taking on the Challenge	97
What Might Students Learn about Gender?	101
Unit 3 (Grades 7–9): “Unique Social Commentary Through Art: Giving Voice to Cultural Oppression”	101
Taking on the Challenge	101
What Might Students Learn about Gender?	105
Unit 4 (Grades 10–12): “People Across Time and Place Respond to an Aesthetic That Uses Human Form as a Means for Creative Expression”	106
Taking on the Challenge	108
What Might Students Learn about Gender?	109

Chapter 8

Gender Equity in the Ideal Art Classroom	113
Domain I: Actions Teachers Can Take	115
Domain II: Creating and Maintaining the Right Environment	115
Domain III: Selecting Meaningful Concepts for Student Exploration	117

Resources	122
Women Artists	122
Practical Curriculum Resource Materials	125
Resources Found on the Web	126
National Library of Education: Educational Resources Information Center (ERIC) Information	127
Sites for Ordering Art Education Resources and Audio-Visual Materials about Women Artists	128
Selected Reproductions, CD-ROMs, DVDs, and Videotapes	129
Videos/DVDs on Women Who Make Art	129
Feminist Histories of Art and of Women Artists	130
Feminist Art Theory and Criticism	131
Theoretical Issues about Gender and Art Education	133
Theoretical Issues about Gender and Education	135
Art, Art Education, and Visual Culture	136
Appendix—Worksheets	138
Index	149