

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	vi
Introduction	xi

Chapter 1

Anyone Can Learn to Draw	1
Drawing Literacy	2
Learning to Draw in the World of Art and Artists	2
Learning to Draw in the World of Genteel Society	3
Access to the Fine Arts	3
Females and the Fine arts	4
Copying versus a Deeper Understanding	5
Learning to Draw in the World of Technology	6
Industrial Drawing as School Reform	8
Massachusetts Leads the Way	8
The Rise and Decline of Walter Smith	10
From Drawing to Art Education: Con, Rep, Dec	14
The Influence of Louis Prang	14
Constructive, Representational, and Decorative Drawing	16
Nature Drawing	17
Children's Inventive Drawing	18
Assessing Industrial Drawing	20

Chapter 2

Freeing the Child through Art	25
The Influence of Modernism and Progressive Social Reform	26
Forecasts of Freedom	27
Painting as a Metaphor for Progressive Art Education	28

Child Art at 291	29
The Progressive Atmosphere	33
The Individual versus the Community	33
Freeing the Child from Technique	34
Every Child Is a Potential Creator	36
Teaching Art to Children	37
Integration	39
Progressive Legacies	41

Chapter 3

Every Girl or Boy Wants Something to Do	45
Art Education and the Working World	46
Serving Industrial Needs	46
Kindergarten as Industrial Education	50
The Philadelphia Industrial Art School	53
Psychological Bases for Manual Training	55
Gender Differences in Manual Training	56
Connecting the Child with Society	57
Emulating Industrial Values	60
Social Efficiency Criticisms of Art Education	62

Chapter 4

Every Day a Festival	67
The Meaning and Purpose of Holiday Art	68
In Touch with Nature's Calendar	68
To Enrich the Day	70
Art and Leisure Time	70
Holidays and Art	70
Schoolroom Decorations	75
Aesthetic Charity for All	75

To Restore the Past	78
The Pageant Movement	78
Beauty in School Art	81

Chapter 5

We Aim at Order and Hope for Beauty	85
Art Theory Meets Representational Work	86
Rules or Intuition	86
Historic Ornament	87
Decoration	88
Composition	88
The Science of Pure Design	93
The Music of Color	97
Designing Art Worlds	101

Chapter 6

The Aesthetic Culture of Pupils	105
Directing and Perceiving Art	106
Fine Arts Go to College	106
Who Taught Art History and Why	109
Art History and Appreciation	111
“A Picture Age”	114
Art Museum Education	118
Art Historical Instruction	119
Aesthetic Appreciation	119
Appreciation of Art in Daily Life	120
Social Education	121
Interdisciplinary Humanities Education	122
Intellect and Sensibility	122

Epilogue	127
Appendix	130
Roots of Art Education Practice: Scope and Sequence	131
Chronology	134
Selected Resources for Doing Art Education History	141
Index	142

